Summary of Terms and Conditions in GAC Articles of Association

- Becoming a member implies acceptance of the T&Cs included in the GAC Articles of Association.
- You will become a member of the Company No. 2141333, which is limited by guarantee. In the event of the company being wound up, your liability is limited to £1.00.
- Members will be expected to respect the aims and objectives of GAC/JAM and help with their achievements when able.
- Acceptance as a member will commence on receipt, by the Jet Age Museum Membership Secretary, of a completed Application and full payment of the annual joining fee.
- Member must pay their annual subscription within 4 weeks of their membership expiry date.
- If the subscription is not paid within 6 months of the renewal date, the member and any additional joint or family records will be classed as lapsed and deleted from the museum's membership database. From this point forward, they will no longer be classed as a member and not entitled to any membership benefits.
- Any Member may resign their membership in writing to the Membership Secretary.
- A Full copy of the Articles of Association is available to view at the Museum

Personal Details

GAC cannot be held responsible for non-delivery of membership benefits or other related correspondence if the member has not informed the Membership Secretary of any changes to their personal details.

Privacy Notice

This notice is to inform Gloucestershire Aviation Collection (GAC) Members of the nature of the personal data we hold, how it is used, where that data is held, how you can view that data and lastly, what happens when membership of GAC ceases.

Data Collection, Retention and Use

When you join or renew membership of GAC you will be asked to provide your name, address, telephone number and Email address. This information is necessary to enable GAC to carry out its legitimate 'membership' activities; by signing the GAC membership form you will be consenting to the processing of the data provided as detailed below. The information you provide will be entered onto the Membership Database managed by the Membership Secretary. Access to the Membership Database is restricted to the Membership Secretary, Deputy and the IT Administrator. The hard copy forms completed by you will be retained in a lockable filing cabinet in the Jet Age Museum office, accessible only to those same people.

Your personal data will be used only for the purposes of contacting you regarding GAC membership administration; for example, membership renewal reminders and notices of general meetings. If you wish to receive membership benefits, namely the quarterly News Letter, Club Night information, and in addition be kept informed of other GAC & Jet Age activities, including significant achievements, events and fundraising pursuits (in which you may be invited to contribute) you will need to Opt-in to this service on the membership application or renewal form. If you do not Opt-in, then we will not be able to communicate with you on anything other than basic GAC membership administrative matters.

Personal data you have provided is not shared with any other organisation or agency but may be correlated internally with information on the Volunteer databases should you also be a Jet Age volunteer.

Viewing personal data held by Jet Age

Your personal data is available for you to view by contacting the Museum Manager via the normal Jet Age Museum contact channels. As an all-volunteer organisation open to the public at weekends, Bank Holidays and school holiday Wednesdays only, actual viewing times will, by necessity, be by negotiation.

Cessation of Membership

If you inform the Membership Secretary that you no longer wish to be GAC Member all your personal details will be deleted or destroyed immediately. However, if you do not renew your membership when requested, all your personal details will be held for 6 months after your membership renewal date.

Your rights

GAC Members have the right to view the personal data held on them and request information to be deleted should it be so desired. However, if the basic information of name, telephone number and/or Email address is not retained for contact purposes then it may not be possible to provide that GAC Member with the information necessary for membership to be continued.

Further Discussion

Should a GAC Member wish to discuss Data Protection please contact the Museum Manager by Email, through the Jet Age website or by writing to: Jet Age Museum, Cheltenham Road East, Gloucester, GL2 9QL.
